

New title

The New Era Agenda

The New Era Agenda* is an interiors magazine in paperback format and a companion publication to the Scandinavian interiors title The New Era Magazine.

Published as an annual special edition paperback, it fuses previously published homes and studio visits with brand new content and ideas. On 320 pages readers get invited to homes and studios of architects, makers, artists and designers shaping our visual and material culture.

In the first volume we visit the legendary Paimio Sanatorium, designed by Aino and Alvar Aalto, and the home of designer and maker Fredrik Paulsen. Creative force Ana Kraš invites us to her Paris home, and the interior architect Emanuele Stamuli takes us on a tour of his home and studio in Stockholm. We discuss making with Philippe Malouin and new aesthetics with Formafantasma, and we visit the designer Ilse Crawford. We also take a look at the new undercurrents shaping the Nordic design scene.
