The New Era

Issue 05

Widely known as one of the foremost magazines hailing from Scandinavia, The New Era Magazine brings together interiors, architecture, design and craft in a beautifully designed bi annual publication. In every issue the readers meet some of the most interesting spaces, people and topics of this moment in time.

ISSUE 05 pays tribute to the Nordic design heritage, with visits to some of the most iconic homes in the region, including those of masters such as Yrjö Kukkapuro and Bruno Mathsson. We also get to sit down with interior designer Beata Heuman in her eclectic London home, and spend time with the master Jonas Bohlin in his combined home and atelier. Elsewhere in the issue we highlight some of the new artists and galleries paving the way right now.
